DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1, 2, and 6 drawn to a polymer and a method of its making.

Group II, claim(s) 3, drawn to another polymer.

Group III, claim(s) 4, 5 drawn to a polymer composition.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Where the group of inventions is claimed in one and the same international application, the requirement for unity of invention referred to in Rule 13.1 shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features. The expression "special technical features" shall mean those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions considered as a whole, makes over the prior art. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1

Art Unit: 1713

because, under PCT Rule 13.2, although they share the special technical feature, such as groups denoted "m" and [Ax---By] this special technical feature does not define a contribution over the prior art for the following reasons: Claim 11 is either obvious or anticipated by DE 2232136. Accordingly, the special technical feature linking the inventions, namely the repeating unit [Ax-By] of polymers does not provide a contribution over the prior art, and no single general inventive concept exists. Therefore the restriction is appropriate

2. The inventions listed as Groups I and III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: when a polymer of Group I is included in a composition, wherein another polymer or oligomer is added, the polymer of Group I may lose its chemical identity due to, for example, crosslinking reactions between the two.

3. The inventions listed as Groups II and II I do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the composition of Group III does not include the polymer of group II.

4. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Art Unit: 1713

The species are as follows:

R2 in a polymer of groups I and II (claims 1 and 3) exemplified by a multiplicity of functional groups, which are different by their structure, and therefore, by their functionality Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The following claim(s) are generic: 1 and 3.

5. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The species listed as X in claim 1 and as a terminal nitroxide group of claim 3 possess different functionalities, and, therefore, impart different properties to polymeric chains, which they terminate.

Art Unit: 1713

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
